The universal condemnation of the strike movement at Lodz has had the effect of quieting the situation and it is expected that the remaining strikers will soon resume work.

There was no cessation on the War's front border today of the rumor that the mobilization of troops in Russian Poland had commenced and possibly might be expected in Warsaw in two days and it caused considerable excitement. It is claimed that if mobilization is attempted here it will lead to serious disturbance.

A strike was declared today at the coal and iron mines, foundries and factories in the districts of Dombrowska, Stremenskoye and Sosnowie.

Portland, Ore., June 28.—Mrs. R. P. Myers and Mrs. William Jones, who came to this city to visit the Lewis and Clark centennial exposition from Jefferson, Ohio, were found dead in their apartments at the Elgin hotel yesterday. An investigation has shown the manner of the death of the two women. It is supposed that the women retired for the night leaving a single gas jet burning and that a spark of air extinguished the flame, releasing the hydrocarbon gas.

It was evident that Mrs. Myers had tried to realize her peril and endeavored to reach the door of the room, but she was too far gone to aid herself and died on the threshold. Mrs. Jones was not awakened by the efforts of Mrs. Myers to gain fresh air, nor were any of the other occupants of the house.

POPE MAY LEAVE VATICAN FOR THE SUMMER.

Today, June 28.—The Messenger says to-day that if the pope decides to leave the vatican during the hot weather he is most likely to go to the famous Benedictine monastery of Monte Cassino, province of Caserta, Italy, and there will be a gathering of the Rev. Father Boniface Krug, formerly of St. Vincent arch abbey, Beatrice Pa, who is abbot of Monte Cassino. In urging his hearers to go "back to beginnings," Mr. Dill contended that "grafting," which was foreign to the true American character, had been developed by the mad rush for wealth and the recognition of false standards by educated men in the competitive struggle for business power and social prominence.

"A large part of our modern prosperity," he said, "is to a relatively large extent bottomed upon an avowed violation of fraud and sham. The crisis exists. A feeling of distrust is growing throughout the country. Many branches of financial business have been in one way or another taken possession of by the usurpations for the purpose of consolidating the treasury. Trust companies have been made the instruments of the flotation of specious and fraudulent promotions.

"Some companies in the field of life insurance, the biggest and in a sense a sacred form of investment, are, as we all know now, conduits through which the savings of the policyholders are diverted into operations for speculative purposes.

"Credit and good faith, not money, are the basis of business. Good or bad, our modern prosperity is founded on public confidence. Take that away and the whole fabric falls."

The nominating speech for Salt Lake was asked for an estimate as to the number of people who would come to Salt Lake for a convention, he stated that in his opinion 15,000 would be the most that could be expected. At its Boston convention in 1902, the association numbered 34,982 members of which 4,288 were active and 30,695 were inactive. Its eastern conventions are more heavily attended than its western meetings, the former running from 9,000 to 25,000, and the latter from 10,000 to 15,000.
